

Collection Name:

Norway in World War II papers, circa 1945

Collection Number:

P0565

Extent:

2.0 cubic feet (5 archives boxes)

Abstract:

Papers concerning Norway and World War II consisting of brochures, clippings, correspondence, manuscripts, pamphlets, speeches, scrapbooks, occupation humor, Per Lorentzen and Nortraship, pictures and a collection of 54 slides covering King Haakon VII's return to Norway in June, 1945.

Box	Folder	Description	Date	Range
1	1	Clippings.	1940	1948
1	2	Correspondence, Manuscript, Pictures. Includes Vitae of Edvard I. Hambro; "Tribute to Norway," (2 p. manuscript by Rosa André (n.d.)); "Norwegian Rehabilitation Problems and Preliminary Results," (typescript, 22 p., no author, n.d.); "Fact and Fiction in the Norwegian War," by Edvard Hambro. Reprinted by the American-Scandinavian Foundation. Dec. 1940; "Why Norway Fights On," by Aase Gruda Skard (1941); "Teachers of a Democracy Fight Nazism," by Aase Gruda Skard (1942); "The Man Whose Name is Quisling," by Sigmund Skard (1942); "Norway: Three Years of Achievement," by Wilhelm Morgenstjerne (1943); added "Memorial Park of Dombås" (June 25, 1988, by Norman Erickson).	1941	1988
1	3	Pamphlets.	1940	1944
1	4	Pamphlets.	1941	1945
2	5	(loose) Pamphlets, Newspapers. Added (on shelving) "Behind the Blackout Curtains" (fiction, youth, 2007), by Ellen Dahlberg Zahl. She experienced the German occupation of Norway and immigrated to the U.S. in 1948 with her parents and older sister; "The Norwegian Paperclip and other stories as told by Olav Richard Crone-Aamot, a member of the Norwegian underground during the German Occupation, April 9, 1940 to June 7, 1945," (self-published, West Virginia, 2011).	1942	1945
2	1	Scrapbook received from Mrs. Leland Amodt, Brewerton, N.Y.	1940	1945

3		Pamphlets. Includes: Per Lorentzen & Nortraship.	1940	1945
4		Issues of Norwegian newspapers, Sept. 1, 1939-April 10, 1940, tracing early course of WW II. Includes: Okkupasjons (humor), Blix de 5 Arene, Befrielsen (photos); Reproduction of Nell Hott painting "Courage."; slides of King Haakon VII's return to Norway in June, 1945. Much of this is of superb quality and is certainly unique; Book "Bombing or sabotage? A young girl's war experience and the destiny of a resistance family," by Lita Deinboll Jensen. (145 pages), commissioned by "The Committee of American Friends of Norway, Inc.," with quotation from President Roosevelt concerning Norwegian resistance on the cover. Gift of Peter Hammer, 1998. Reviews of Kathleen Stokker's book "Folklore fights the Nazis: humor in occupied Norway."	1940	2000
5		Four scrapbooks kept by Magne H. Grinde (Lock Haven, Pennsylvania). Clippings of Norwegian Royal Family, WW II Norway events, and general World War II, shipping news and new launches, and early Norwegian sailors; Book: "En ø i krig" from Bornholmerens Forlag.	1940	1975
		(loose books/shelving) Norway in World War II. Scandinavian Resistance Book Collection (includes Paul Wehr, Univ. of Colorado, collection. Added May 2010).	1943	2010
2		(added May 2010): Two files with corresponding papers prepared by Paul Wehr, Univ. of Colorado : Norwegian Resistance to Nazism (1984) and Civil Resistance in Denmark: 1940-1945 (1976).	1976	1984