

Collection Name: Rasmus Bjørn Anderson papers, 1872-1918

Collection Number: P0717

Extent: 0.8 cubic feet (2 archives boxes)

Abstract: Clippings, correspondence, genealogy, music, pamphlets, and photographs of a Wisconsin-born author, diplomat, editor, and educator. The clippings deal largely with Anderson controversies. Anderson was professor of Norwegian at the University of Wisconsin, United States minister to Denmark, and editor of "Amerika" (1898-1922), Madison, Wisconsin.

Rasmus Bjørn Anderson papers, 1823-1936 at the Wisconsin Historical Society in Madison is over 16.8 cubic feet (65 archives boxes) and contains photographs, correspondence, and more.

See "Rasmus Bjørn Anderson: Pioneer Scholar," by Lloyd Hustvedt, NAHA, 1966.

Box	Folder	Description
1	1	Articles about Anderson, 1878-1954
1	2	Family history, 1791, 1956
1	3	Correspondence, clippings, genealogy, 1875-1913
1	4	Letters, 1888-1964
1	5	Articles, cartoons, clippings, correspondence, 1872-1954 Includes reel of microfilm of Anderson's letters to B. Bjørnson, 1872-1902. According to Hustvedt's biography (p. 368) another copy is in the Wisconsin State Historical Society.
1	6	Books and pamphlets by Anderson, 1874-1893
1	7	Pamphlets, 1875-1899
1	8	Clippings, 1979-1980 Regarding a round robin letter circulating among the descendants of Abel and Catherine von Krogh Anderson, parents of Rasmus.
2		Volumes by Rasmus B. Anderson. "Norge i Billeder," 1897 "Julegave," 1900 "Bygdejævning," 1903
2	1	Music, 1875-1918 Including "The Norway Music Album," edited by Anderson.
2	2	Photographs, undated