

Collection Name:

Amandus Norman papers, 1884-1942

Collection Number:

P0809

Extent:

0.4 cubic feet (1 archives box)

Abstract:

Papers of a Norwegian immigrant whose father homesteaded in Clay County, Minnesota. Amandus Norman was influenced by Kristoffer Janson and was trained for the ministry at Meadville Theological Seminary in Pennsylvania. He served as Janson's successor at Nazareth Church in Minneapolis from 1893-1906, where he spent winters. During the same time period, summers were spent in Hanska, Minnesota, where, after 1906, he served the Unitarian congregation. He also spent some time as a journalist.

Box	Folder	Description	Date	Range
1	1	Poems and clippings (1907-1942, n.d.).	1907	1942
1	2	Clippings, letters, programs, pamphlets and photographs concerning Norman and the Nora Free Christian Church in Hanska, Minnesota (1906-1993).	1906	1993
1	0	(Loose) Pamphlets and books by Amandus Norman (1884-1932).	1884	1932
1	3	Drafts of articles by Norman (n.d.); titles are: "Norse Americans and America," "The Norse Americans during the War."	0	0